Important Information

TERM 6: We hope that you have enjoyed visiting New Mexico last week and have learnt lots of new and exciting facts. We are leaving New Mexico and travelling 1,857.5 miles to.....

WASHINGTON D.C

We would love to hear what you have been up to or answer any questions via our shared mailbox - hswhomelearning@r-i-t.org. There is now a page on the school website to celebrate home learning, which work and photos will be uploaded to!

Keep your eyes peeled for another addition of George's Marvellous Medicine read by Mr Millard and other activities 😊

A place to stay: You are in Washington DC and need to find a place to stay from the date you are completing this activity for one week. You need to find an expensive and cheap place to stay. You can present this piece of work however you like. You may want to create a poster or a leaflet. When you are completing this activity think about:

- Where is it in Washington?
- Is anything near this hotel?
- How much does it cost?
- What is the rating?

Use these websites to help you:

<https://www.booking.com/city/us/washington.en-gb.html>

<https://www.trivago.co.uk/washington-dc-35126/hotel>

<https://www.expedia.co.uk/Washington-Hotels.d178318.Travel-Guide-Hotels>

Plan a party: Imagine that you have the opportunity to plan your own party for Independence Day. Think about the following:

- Is there a theme?
- Who is on the guest list?
- What music will you play?
- What food and drink will you have there?
- Will you play any games?
- What decorations will you have?

You can present this activity however you like, whether this is as an invitation, a poster or even a checklist.
